

Rules and Regulations of The Reader's Lounge at NUR International University

1. Membership:

- All students of NUR International University are welcome to join The Reader's Lounge.
- Members are expected to actively participate in book discussions, events, and meetings.
- Membership may be revoked due to lack of participation, disruptive behavior, or failure to follow the club's code of conduct.

2. Attendance:

- Members are required to attend scheduled meetings and events, and prior notice must be given for any absence.
- Repeated absenteeism may affect a member's ability to participate in certain club activities or events.

3. Code of Conduct:

- Members must engage in discussions with respect and openness, valuing diverse opinions and perspectives.
- Any form of discrimination, harassment, or inappropriate behavior will not be tolerated and may result in disciplinary action.

4. Participation:

- Members are encouraged to actively contribute to discussions, share insights, and suggest books or themes for future meetings.
- Participation in club-organized activities, such as reading challenges or literary events, is highly encouraged to foster a sense of community.

5. Book Selection:

- Book selections should promote inclusivity and diversity, representing a wide range of genres, authors, and cultures.
- Members may suggest books, but final selections will be decided by a vote or by the club's leadership.

6. Meeting Etiquette:

- Members must arrive on time for meetings and be prepared with any reading or discussion materials.

- Mobile phones and other distractions should be minimized during meetings to ensure focused and meaningful discussions.

7. Borrowing and Sharing Books:

- Members are encouraged to share books with fellow members, ensuring that borrowed books are returned in good condition and on time.
- The club may maintain a small library or book exchange program; members must adhere to the borrowing rules.

8. Event Participation:

- Members are expected to support and participate in club events, such as book fairs, author talks, or literary competitions.
- Active involvement in these events is essential for the growth and vibrancy of the club.

9. Leadership and Roles:

- Club leadership roles (President, Vice President, etc.) are elected positions, and all members are eligible to run for office.
- Leadership decisions, such as meeting agendas and event planning, should be communicated clearly and inclusively.

10. Amendments to Rules:

- These rules and regulations may be amended by the club's leadership in consultation with members, reflecting the club's evolving needs.
 - Members will be informed of any changes to the rules, which will take effect immediately unless stated otherwise.
-